

Moon Phases

The Moon, symbol of the Goddess.

Moon phases influence our lives in many ways. They certainly have a very powerful influence on Magick. Knowing which phase of the Moon influences a particular type of Magick can be very useful.

Waxing Moon

A waxing Moon is the time for Magick where you want things to grow, time to plant seeds for future happenings. Improving an existing relationship, helping with an existing career, this is the time to start the seeds to blossom in the future.

Full Moon

A full Moon is a time when your confidence can really soar. This is a time to seek clarity in confusing situations. This is a time for the most potent Magick. A great time to empower yourself with lunar energies. Give yourself a jump start, protect your psychic self, time for healing and a time if you have a great an immediate need.

Waning Moon

The declining energy of the waning Moon, this is the time for really washing away any problems you may have, ready for a new start. A time to clear the decks, pay off any debts or end an argument. Though as the power of the Moon wanes, it can leave you open to negative influences so be careful at this time.

New Moon

This is the time for a fresh start, the start of something new. If you want a change of career, a new relationship, a start to a new project. This is the time to perform Magick related to fresh and new beginnings.
